

BRINGING HOPE

to flood victims
and we need YOUR help!

We at Central Presbyterian Church (CPC) are asking you and your organization to work in partnership with us to volunteer to work at clean up and to raise funds to provide disaster assistance support in follow-up to victims of the 2008 floods. We want to bring hope to those impacted by this disaster after media attention turns to other stories.

We can do more collectively than we can individually.

We have scheduled some tentative dates day trips to help with the flood disaster recovery. Sign up is necessary in case of cancellation.

Tuesday, August 12
Wednesday, August 20
Saturday, August 23

Wednesday, August 27
Saturday, August 30

There are forms that must be completed in order for volunteers to participate as well as important information about volunteering! Contact Central Presbyterian Church at 632-2651 to get a volunteer packet or check our website at <http://www.central-pres.org/> .

Donations can be made payable to “CPC Disaster Assistance Bringing Hope” and can be dropped off at Central Presbyterian Church or deposited directly into the account at The National Bank of Petersburg.

Watch for updated information in The Petersburg Observer & Menard County Review.

We hope you will take part in Bringing Hope to flood victims by volunteering to help.
